

Cleveland Chapter of ASIS

We are proud to announce our new meeting location

Bratenahl Place Bistro
One Bratenahi Place
Bratenahl, Ohio 44108

2018 Officers

Laurie Bosu Chair

Marti Lambert Vice-Chair

Kathy Tomco Treasurer

David Bly Secretary

Monthly Topic "Sex Trafficking in Northeast Ohio"

Our guest speakers Gregory Colbeck -- Director of Operations -RAHAB

Greg Colbeck has served as the Director of Operations for RAHAB Ministries since April of 2014. RAHAB Ministries reaches hundreds of women and children every month, most of whom are victims of sexual exploitation. Since 2002, RAHAB has provided everything from a hot meal and some new clothes to a fully-funded, trauma-informed safe-housing program with the goal of providing healing for victims of sex trafficking. At RAHAB, some of Greg's responsibilities include overseeing day-to-day operations, managing staff in the various areas of ministry, developing and instituting programming, and coordinating with Becky Moreland (Executive Director) to continue to fulfill her vision for the ministry. Greg and his wife Amanda have two daughters named Stella and Violet.

John Morgan -- Detective Special Investigations Unit
- Cuyahoga County Sheriff's Department

Cleveland ASIS February meeting notes.

12:00 PM Meeting opened by Chair Laurie Bosu

Pledge Allegiance to the Flag

introductions of attendees that came to meeting.

Vice Chair Marti Lambert sold 50/50 tickets for Chapter student scholarships

And spoke of partnership with Tri-C Community College.

lunch

Guest Speakers Gregory Colbeck & John Morgan spoke

13:10 PM meeting was adjourned

There was 21 people in attendance. 19. members and. Guests, 3 Guest Speakers

Officer John Morgan from the Cuyahoga County Sheriff Special Investigations Unit did an outstanding program about local sex trafficking cases.

Meeting Notes By

David Bly

Cleveland Chapter Secretary 2018