

Cleveland Chapter of ASIS

Our first meeting of the new year 2018. We are proud to announce our new meeting location

Bratenahl Place Bistro
One Bratenahi Place
Bratenahl, Ohio 44108

2018 Officers

Laurie Bosu Chair

Marti Lambert Vice-Chair

Kathy Tomco Treasurer

David Bly Secretary

Our guest speaker for January 19, 2018 is Bob Shuster

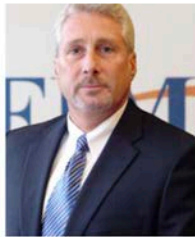

Rob Shuster

Vice President of Protective Services and Training

"Essential Best Practices for Workplace Violence Prevention and Management"

- Introduction and objectives
- Critical Mistakes that Organizations Make
- Human Resources and Security- must work together
- Developing Workplace Violence Policy – reasonable foreseeability
- Defining Workplace Violence – categories of potential workplace violence
- Employee Training - behavioral warning signs
- Case Management Team - establish one and use them
- Developing High Risk Termination Protocols
- Third Party Assistance May Be Required
- Proactive Measures and Response - preparation
- Developing Specific Active Shooter Response Plans
- Documentation of the Case Management Process
- Training Resource Available

Prior to joining AFIMAC, Mr. Shuster spent most of his 30-year career with a global leader in uniform security and investigations services. There, he held various positions including: executive protection detail leader, director of training, vice president of corporate development, senior vice president of the asset protection team.

Mr. Shuster is a respected expert in security practices and training related to crisis management and response, labor disputes, close protection operations, special event security, security awareness programs, evasive & defensive driving, and executive protection program design. He has written corporate security articles and white papers, and has lectured for many noted organizations including the American Society for Industrial Security (ASIS), the International Society of Special Event Planners, the Young Presidents Organization, Penn State University, the Tactical Response Association, and the International Association of Chiefs of Police. Mr. Shuster has also served two (2) four-year terms on the private security advisory board for the Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services.

Cleveland ASIS January meeting notes.

12:00 PM Meeting opened by Chair Laurie Bosu

Pledge Allegiance to the Flag introductions of attendees that came to meeting.

Vice Chair Marti Lambert sold 50/50 tickets for Chapter student scholarships lunch

Guest Speaker Rob Shuster talk

Closing comments from Laurie Bosu and Marti Lambert chapter meetings will be held at this location.

Next Meeting Feb 16. Speaker to be announced on website and invitation cards sent out.

Chapter is seeking members participation by bring a guest or recommend a speaker

Chapter is offering a $1,095 ticket to ASIS National Meeting in Las Vegas Sept 23-27 2018 Air fare, food, lodging not included.

Rob Shuster given certificate and drew winning 50/50 raffle ticket

130 PM meeting was adjourned

There was 24 people in attendance 21 members and 2 Guests, 1 Guest Speaker meeting notes by

David Bly

2018 Chapter Secretary

