ASIS Cleveland offers our members and other security professionals a variety of ways to advertise your company or organization, new products, services, or programs. The packages vary by price to the level of exposure your organization will receive. Flexible "pick and choose" packages make it easy to choose the level that is right for you, and that different individuals and organizations could easily select one or several. This also adds a special touch to the success of our annual outing while serving promotional interests.

Please indicate the package(s) you would like by checking the boxes. Total the amounts and add these to page one under Sponsorship Total. Please contact Erik Richardson, Golf Chair, 330-908-4192 with questions or for further information.
